Troop 11 Grubmaster Instructions

Patrol Food Purchase

What: Patrol Grubmasters will purchase food for the Troop Campout

Who: Each and every patrol who wants to eat on the campout should send their grubmaster to purchase their food. It is not required that the person purchasing the food be attending the campout. If several scouts in a patrol are working on rank advancement cooking requirements they may all participate.

When: Wednesday before the campout
7:00 p.m.

Where: meet at Tapioca Express 3311 Westpark next to Kroger grocery store in shopping center at Buffalo Speedway and Westpark. We will return to Tapioca Express after shopping.

Instructions:

- Wear your Field Uniform (Class A)
- Bring a calculator and pencil
- Bring your approved meal plan, menu, and shopping list (prepare your shopping list before arrival). Know how many scouts for whom you are purchasing food. Make sure you estimate the total cost of the purchase.
- If you cannot attend, (1) find a substitute and (2) notify your patrol leader
- Meet at 7 pm at Tapioca Express next to the Kroger store
- We will review shopping lists and each patrol will receive $8 / scout
- We will shop together at Kroger. Scouts should estimate the value of groceries in their carts before entering the checkout line to ensure they are within budget. Scouts will purchase food items and return receipts and unspent cash.
- After shopping, we will return to Tapioca Express for refreshments, review, and dismissal.

- The patrol responsible for Friday night Cracker Barrel will receive an additional budget allowance of $1 / camper
